Autism: A National Perspective

Scott Badesch is the President/CEO of the Autism Society of America, the nation's oldest and largest autism grassroots organization. In his role as President/CEO, Mr. Badesch has transformed the organization to become a national leader in supporting the daily needs of individuals impacted by autism through outcome based services and support. Since Mr. Badesch became the President/CEO of the Autism Society of America in 2011, the organization has significantly advanced and enhanced its partnership with its 91 affiliates, maintained a secure funding base, and developed strategic initiatives aimed at advancing the well-being of all impacted by autism in America. Mr. Badesch has been the recipient of numerous awards and recognition for his work.

Mr. Badesch has a Masters of Arts Degree from the University of Chicago and his Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Illinois. He and his wife Phyllis have been married for 34 years and have four adult children. His oldest son is autistic and independently lives and works in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Arc of Kentucky Annual Awards - 2018

The Arc of Kentucky Annual Awards will be presented at the annual conference in Louisville on March 8, 2018. The awards will be given to the nominated individuals who best fit these descriptions: These awards emphasize the importance of recognizing the ABILITIES of people with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities, and the outstanding service delivered by many volunteers and professionals in the fields of intellectual and related disabilities.

Carl D. Perkins Service Award - is presented to an individual who has made notable contributions continuing over an extended period of time to promote and enhance the quality of services to individuals with intellectual and other related disabilities.

Gayla Peach Advocacy Award - is presented to an individual who has made a significant contribution by speaking out and providing leadership to secure or maintain the rights, services, and supports for individuals with intellectual and other related disabilities and their families.

Ronald J. Cutter Professional Service Award - is presented to a professional who has provided significant support and services that have contributed to the development of individuals with intellectual and other related disabilities.

Susy Riffe Memorial Award for Achievement - is presented to a Kentuckian, age 25 or older, who has an intellectual disability and has made a positive contribution through participation at work, in the home, and in the community. In addition to a plaque, the recipient of the Susy Award receives a $100 U.S. Savings Bond.

Organization Service Award - is presented to an organization that has provided outstanding service to The Arc.

Membership Award - is presented to the local Arc Chapter with the greatest membership increased during the previous calendar year. (if the largest number and largest percent increases are not achieved by the same chapter, two awards will be given.)

Each nomination must be described in a letter detailing the nominee's qualifications and explaining the nominator's relationship or extent of acquaintance. Typically nominations are made by parents, friends, co-workers, or service providers or other professionals in fields involving intellectual and other disabilities. A letter of nomination may be sent at any time. For the 2018 awards, the letter must be received in The Arc Office by February 19, 2018 by U.S. mail, the letter should go to The Arc's Award Selection Committee, 706 E. Main Street, Suite A, Frankfort, KY 40601, by fax (502) 875-5226, or by e-mail to sherri@arcofky.org.

The Arc's Award Selection Committee will review the nominations and make recommendations for approval to The Arc Board. The awards will be given during Thursday's luncheon on March 8.

"Together We Grow"

Best Practices for People with Intellectual and/or Developmental Disabilities

March 8-9, 2018
Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport
830 Phillips Lane
Louisville, KY

We are looking for success stories!

WE NEED YOU (self-advocates/families/friends/teachers/groups/agencies) to share information about how people who have intellectual and/or developmental disabilities are living lives that reflect the values of inclusive communities and quality lives.

Stories can be about any area of life including but not limited to:

- ♦ Inclusive schooling
- ♦ Employment/Self-employment
- ♦ Volunteer work
- ♦ Recreation/leisure
- ♦ Pursuing Hobbies
- ♦ Attending College
- ☐ Community involvement
- ☐ Church/Faith community
- ☐ Advocating for Change
- ☐ Living more independently
- ☐ Home Ownership
- ☐ Fulfilling a Dream

The poster session is a forum for sharing how things can be done-no matter how difficult –and a place to network with other conference participants who are interested in finding out more.

People can use posters, videos/DVDs, samples, anything that will help tell the success story and give others some ideas on how to get started or how to avoid pitfalls. (You will need to bring your own equipment –laptop, DVD player, etc.). We will provide a table, two chairs and an electrical outlet (if needed).

Because this is a conference session designed for sharing information, we ask that you do not sell anything. People who have their own business are welcome to hand out cards and other information about their business. If you would like to sell at this conference you can register as an exhibitor or participate in the Self-Advocates Market Place. Please contact the Arc for more information.

This conference session is scheduled for 4:30 – 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 8, 2018.

WE CAN'T PROVIDE transportation, hotel accommodations or any other expenses. We can direct you to some possible sources for those costs.

Please fill out the attached form by February 10, 2018 and mail or email it to The Arc of Kentucky, Attention: Conference Committee, 706 Main Street - Suite A, Frankfort KY 40601. Email Address: Sherri@arcokfy.org Questions? Phone: 1(502)875-5225 or 1(800)281-1272; Fax: (502) 875-5226.
